CRIMINAL OFFENCES

All successful applicants will be required to provide an Enhanced DBS Disclosure. The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Guidance about whether a conviction or cautions should be disclosed, if you are shortlisted, can be found on the Ministry of Justice website. If you are unsure whether you need to disclose criminal information, you should seek legal advice or find out more information on the Ministry of Justice website:
